What is GDP?

WHAT IS GDP?

GIDP is an innovative cash management option that provides a competitive yield on deposits in a network of carefully-selected FDIC-insured banks via a single, convenient account. Deposits will be distributed by the custodian as directed by the Federally Insured Cash AccountSM ("FICA") program to multiple banks in amounts that will never exceed the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC") maximum amount (currently $250,000). GIDP seeks to deposit funds in participating banks with an objective to provide the safety of full FDIC insurance, a competitive yield and the convenience of managing a single account.

GIDP Federally Insured Cash AccountSM Program Summary

The following is a summary of GIDP, which is powered by the FICA program. This summary is qualified in its entirety by the terms set forth in your Administrative Agreement, beginning on page 13.

INTRODUCTION

GIDP allows clients to deposit funds into a single, convenient account ("Account"), which in turn will be deposited through the FICA program into multiple banks so the amounts that a single client has on deposit in any single bank through GIDP will never exceed the FDIC insurance amount as set by the FDIC.

GIDP is designed for clients to deposit funds in a fully FDIC-insured bank deposit program that offers a competitive yield and the ability to withdraw funds daily. The program provides access to hundreds of carefully-screened banks via a single, convenient Account.

GIDP is not a mutual fund or pooled account; instead, each Account is a separately managed account in which the client directly owns the bank deposits made on its behalf.

ADMINISTRATOR

Meeder Asset Management, Inc., 6125 Memorial Drive, Dublin, Ohio 43017, serves as administrator of GIDP ("Administrator") and provides the following services: process paperwork necessary to open your GIDP Account, provides all customer service functions including facilitating deposits and withdrawals, answering questions from and distributing communications to clients, and ensuring maintenance of the GIDP website. Administrator will provide various other administrative services as described in the agreement ("Administrative Agreement").

FEDERALLY INSURED CASH ACCOUNTSM

FICA is an innovative product that ensures cash deposits have full FDIC insurance coverage from an extensive proprietary network of carefully-screened banks. On a daily basis, each client can view their deposits by bank. StoneCastle Cash Management, LLC ("StoneCastle") is the administrator ("FICA Administrator") of the FICA program. StoneCastle will utilize its FICA program to direct your funds to FDIC-insured banks through the Custodian.

STANDARD & POOR'S COMMENTARY

In a notice on February 21, 2011, Standard & Poor's Senior Director included the following statement: "We evaluated the Federally Insured Cash AccountSM ("FICA") program managed by StoneCastle Cash Management. In our opinion, for our Principal Stability Fund Ratings or 'PSFRs' (i.e. AAAM), we view the credit risk of FICA as equal to U.S. government sovereign credit rating (currently 'AAA'), as deposits in FICA are FDIC-insured up to the $250,000 maximum amount per bank." Contact Administrator for a copy of the complete notice.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

The objective of GIDP is to provide safety and capital preservation through FDIC-insured bank deposits with an attractive yield and the ability to deposit and/or withdraw funds daily. GIDP seeks to achieve these objectives by depositing funds in bank savings and demand accounts.

FDIC INSURANCE

Client's funds are deposited into depository accounts ("Depository Accounts") at depository banks ("Depository Banks") along with funds from other clients in GIDP and the FICA program in a manner such that the amount each client has on deposit in any single bank will never exceed the FDIC insurance limit. In the event of a failure of a Depository Bank, Advisor will promptly cause the Custodian to submit an insurance claim to the FDIC on behalf of the clients who have amounts on deposit at the Depository Bank.

FDIC insurance coverage could be impacted by clients having additional money held at Depository Banks outside of GIDP. Neither the Administrator nor Advisor nor Custodian takes any responsibility for money clients may have at a Depository Bank outside of the GIDP program. Clients are solely responsible for monitoring their FDIC coverage at any Depository Bank where clients have directly made deposits to ensure that their funds on deposit at any Depository Bank do not exceed the standard maximum insurance amount. If clients have funds at a Depository Bank held outside of their Account, they may request in writing that the Advisor not deposit funds from their Account into any such Depository Bank by completing a Bank Exclusion Form available by visiting MeederGIDP.com or calling 1.855.648.7587.

HOW TO OPEN AN ACCOUNT

In order to initiate participation in GIDP, the attached application forms and Administrative Agreement must be completed and submitted in one of the following ways.

- Mail all completed GIDP documents to: GIDP, P.O. Box 7177, Dublin, Ohio 43017.
- Send electronic copies of completed GIDP documents to: clientadmin@meederinvestment.com.
- Fax completed documents to: 1.614.766.6669

DEPOSITS

There is a $250,000 minimum initial deposit required to open an Account with the Meeder GIDP program. There is no minimum amount required for subsequent deposits or balances. The maximum total deposit available per Account (per tax identification number) is $25 million; this amount is subject to change based on market or business conditions. All deposits must be in U.S. dollars.

To initiate deposits, an authorized individual must call GIDP at 1.855.648.7587 to request banking instructions to wire into your GIDP account. Once funds are received in your Account, the funds will be transferred to the Depository Banks. The amount deposited at each Depository Bank through the FICA program will never exceed the standard maximum deposit insurance amount as set forth by the FDIC.

Funds must be received into your GIDP Account by 11:00 a.m. (ET) on any business day for transfers of such amounts to be initiated to the Depository Banks on such date. In the event funds are received after 11:00 a.m. (ET), the funds will be deposited the following business day. If funds are received after 11:00 a.m. (ET), the funds will be invested that day in a AAA-rated treasury money market fund with total fund assets in excess of $500 million, and the transfer will be initiated to the Depository Banks the following business day.

In the case of partial withdrawals from your Account, Advisor will determine from which Depository Banks your withdrawal request will be processed.

DETERMINATION OF INTEREST RATES

Interest rates paid on deposits in the Depository Accounts are determined at the discretion of each Depository Bank based on prevailing economic and business conditions and are subject to change at any time and without notice. The interest clients have earned on their deposits will be indicated on their account statement. Current interest rates at individual Depository Banks will not be shown on account statements. Clients will only earn interest while their funds are on deposit through one or more Depository Accounts at the Depository Banks.

PROGRAM YIELD

Clients with an account balance of $250,000 or more are eligible to earn interest. All clients meeting this minimum balance will earn the same monthly Account yield. The yield that is earned on your Account for each month will be shown on your Account statement. Contact the Administrator or visit MeederGIDP.com for the current yield. All quoted yields represent the past performance from the prior month, which is no guarantee of future results.

WEBSITE

The program website is MeederGIDP.com. Clients may use their online access ID and password to access current account balances, view each Depository Bank in which their funds are deposited, and view statements. In addition, Account documents relating to the program may be found on the website.

ACCOUNT STATEMENTS

All Account statements will be provided via electronic copy ("e-statement") available on the program website at MeederGIDP.com. Clients will receive an e-mail when their account statement is available for viewing. Clients will be required to use their online access ID and password in order to view, print or save the e-statement account information. By signing the Administrative Agreement, Clients specifically consent to electronic delivery of Account statements and any other disclosures relating to the Account(s) to the e-mail address provided to the Administrator. Clients are responsible for notifying the Administrator of changes in the e-mail address to be used for such purposes. Clients will not receive paper statements.

The Account statement will include the aggregate of the opening and closing balances in the Account, the net accrued interest earned, and the list of banks in which deposits have been placed. Clients will not receive a separate statement from the Depository Banks. Clients should download and retain all Account statements. Clients must notify the Administrator immediately of any discrepancies noted on their Account statement.

Administrative Agreement

This Administrative Agreement ("Agreement") is effective as of the date executed by and between Meeder Asset Management, Inc., ("Meeder"), its applicable affiliates, and the undersigned account owner ("Client"). In consideration of the mutual promises, covenants, and undertakings set forth herein, the parties hereby agree as follows.

1. PROGRAM DESCRIPTION.

The Government Insured Deposit Program ("GIDP") is a cash management account ("Account") offered through an agreement with StoneCastle Cash Management, LLC, ("StoneCastle"), which manages the Federally Insured Cash Account ("FICA") program. Meeder provides administrative services to GIDP clients, including assistance with opening accounts and directing transfer of funds into and out of the program. Using a separate Limited Power of Attorney, Clients authorize Meeder to initiate transfers between accounts of record at the instruction of the Client to invest or redeem funds in the Account. Meeder does not have authority to designate, amend or modify Client accounts of record or to transmit funds outside of accounts of record without written client authorization. Client may terminate these instructions at any time.

2. ADMINISTRATIVE FEE.

Meeder receives an Administrative Fee representing a portion of the FICA Fee deducted from client accounts by StoneCastle. Under an agreement with StoneCastle, Meeder is eligible to receive compensation up to 0.10% of the average daily balance of the account for its role in recommending and administering the program, which fee may be waived in whole or in part in Meeder's discretion. Meeder is not affiliated with or a client of StoneCastle. This arrangement provides Meeder with an incentive to solicit and secure participation in the program. Meeder also has entered into other arrangements with StoneCastle unrelated to this relationship and for which it may receive other compensation. This Administrative Fee is taken out prior to published/stated yield on your GIDP statement.

3. THIRD-PARTY PAYMENTS.

In addition to the Administrative Fee, StoneCastle has agreed to compensate Meeder under a separate agreement for introducing StoneCastle to certain Ohio banks that are utilized by the FICA Program. Any compensation paid to Meeder under this program will not affect the program yield.

4. ENDORSEMENTS.

Meeder accepts clients referred through unaffiliated introducing advisers who solicit business for Meeder, but who are not affiliated with or a client of Meeder. Under an agreement with each introducing adviser, Meeder may pay a referral fee directly or through its affiliate, Meeder Advisory Services, Inc., equal to a portion of the Administrative Fee earned by Meeder. This arrangement provides the introducing adviser with an incentive to solicit and secure participation in the program. Meeder enters into other arrangements with its introducing advisers, unrelated to this relationship and for which they may receive other compensation.

5. CUSTODY.

Meeder will not assume physical custody of your Account or any portion of it. Each GIDP client establishes a custodial account with the FICA Custodian, which will act as the qualified custodian for the account, direct allocation of funds to Depository Banks and provide statements to clients in the program.

6. MEEDER'S REPRESENTATIONS.

Meeder represents that it is a registered investment adviser under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940.

7. CLIENT'S REPRESENTATIONS.

Client represents and acknowledges that: (i) Client has the power and authority to enter into this Agreement; (ii) Client is the sole beneficial owner of the funds committed to the Account; (iii) the person signing this Agreement on behalf of Client is authorized and empowered to establish accounts and commit assets to the program; (iv) all investments in GIDP are permitted under the applicable investment policy, state investment codes or other statutes, regulations or rules governing the investment of Client funds; (v) Client has received the StoneCastle Form ADV and Meeder Privacy Policy; and (vi) Client has received the GIDP Fact Sheet concurrently with any written or oral endorsement of the FICA program.

8. ELECTRONIC DELIVERY.

Client consents to electronic delivery of all documents from Meeder, including but not limited to a copy of the executed Agreement, privacy policy, disclosure brochures, reports and other communications related to the Account.

9. CONFIDENTIALITY.

All information and advice furnished by either party to the other, including their respective agents and employees, shall be treated as confidential and shall not be disclosed to third parties except as otherwise required by law or as agreed to in writing by Client.

10. TERM.

Client may terminate this Agreement at any time by written notice to Meeder. Meeder may terminate this Agreement, suspend or modify program services provided for the Account upon thirty (30) days written notice to Client. Termination of this Agreement will not affect the status, obligations or liabilities of the parties to this Agreement that arose prior to such termination.

Exhibit A–Limited Power of Attorney

11. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.

Except for negligence, malfeasance or violation of applicable law, Meeder and its officers, directors or employees shall not be liable to Client for any action performed, or omitted to be performed, or for any errors of judgment in managing the Account. Nor shall Meeder be liable to Client for any act or failure to act by any other third party. Meeder makes no representation that GIDP is an eligible investment under any investment policy or state investment code. The federal securities laws impose liabilities under certain circumstances on persons even when they act in good faith. Therefore, nothing in this Agreement shall in any way constitute a waiver or limitation of any rights that Client may have under any federal or state securities laws.

12. ASSIGNMENT.

This Agreement may not be assigned by either party without the consent of the other party. Consent to assignment will be presumed in the event Meeder provides Client with notice of an assignment and Client does not object to the assignment within thirty (30) days following the date of the notice.

13. AMENDMENT.

This Agreement may be amended by Meeder with thirty (30) days prior written notice to Client and may be amended immediately upon notice to the extent reasonably required to satisfy federal or state regulatory requirements.

14. AFFILIATES.

To the extent necessary to carry out the terms of this Agreement, any named affiliate of Meeder shall be deemed to be a party to the Agreement for that purpose.

15. GOVERNING LAW.

This Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Ohio without giving effect to any conflict or choice of law provisions of that State.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have caused this Agreement to be executed by their duly authorized officers or agents to become effective as of the day and year first written above.

FICA Account Terms and Conditions: Government Insured Deposit Program (“GIDP”)

Effective May 1, 2024

Introduction

The Federally Insured Cash Account program, also known as the FICA Program (“FICA Program”), offered by StoneCastle Cash Management, LLC (“StoneCastle”) allows customers the ability to protect their money by placing it in deposit accounts at banks and savings institutions (collectively, “Insured Depositories”) in a manner that seeks to maintain full insurance of the funds by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (“FDIC”). Funds will be deposited within StoneCastle’s network of Insured Depositories (“Deposit Network”).

The funds in your FICA Account will be held by U.S. Bank National Association (“U.S. Bank”), which will be acting as your custodian and as the custodian for the FICA Program. U.S. Bank, in its capacity as the FICA Program custodian, is referred to herein as the “FICA Custodian.” By opening a FICA Account, you are appointing StoneCastle as your program manager (“Manager”) and authorized agent as described herein.

StoneCastle will direct the FICA Custodian to deposit the funds that you deposit into your FICA Account (“Deposits”), along with funds from other participants in the FICA Program (each, a “FICA Depositor”) into one or more FDIC insured accounts (each, a “Depository Account”) at multiple Insured Depositories. The Depository Account(s) at each Insured Depository will be in the name of one or more sub-custodians (each, a “Sub-Custodian”) acting as custodian for the persons or entities who are listed on its records.

The money from your FICA Account is deposited at Insured Depositories in a manner currently designed to maximize FDIC insurance coverage which is fully guaranteed by the full faith and credit of the U.S. government. The FDIC Standard Maximum Deposit Insurance Amount (“SMDIA”) is currently $250,000 per depositor, per insured depository.

The FICA Program deposit insurance limit can be obtained by calling (866) 343-5516.

These Terms and Conditions for the FICA Program are supplemental to those contained in your existing account agreements you were furnished in connection with opening your account with your investment advisor (“Advisor”), if applicable.

YOU UNDERSTAND THAT BY ENROLLING IN THE FICA PROGRAM, YOU ARE INSTRUCTING STONECASTLE AND THE FICA CUSTODIAN TO PLACE FUNDS RECEIVED FROM YOU INTO THE FICA PROGRAM. YOU ACKNOWLEDGE THAT YOU HAVE RECEIVED AND CAREFULLY READ THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS BEFORE ENROLLING IN THE FICA PROGRAM.

By opening a FICA Account, you agree to the Terms and Conditions set forth herein.

1) Initial Deposit and Account Eligibility

The FICA Program does not require a minimum initial deposit to open a FICA Account and there is no minimum amount required for subsequent deposits. In order to obtain FDIC insurance in the FICA Program, you must provide proper and correct tax identification information to the FICA Custodian and StoneCastle.

The FICA Program is open to participants that are (a) both "accredited investors" under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and "qualified purchasers" under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, and/or (b) U.S. (federal or state) governmental units.

The FICA Program is open to Benefit Plans (as defined below) with the prior approval of StoneCastle and the FICA Custodian, each at its discretion.

The term “Benefit Plans” is defined as (a) any “employee benefit plan” (as defined in Section 3(3) of Title I of ERISA) that is subject to the fiduciary responsibilities provisions of ERISA, (b) a plan described in Section 4975(e)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the “Code”) that is subject to Section 4975 of the Code, (c) any entity whose underlying assets include “plan assets” (within the meaning of the Plan Asset Regulations as in effect immediately after the effective date of Section 3(42) of ERISA as added by the Pension Protection Act of 2006) by reason of any such plan’s investment in the entity (or as such term is otherwise defined in the regulations promulgated by the U.S. Department of Labor under Section 3(42) of ERISA) or (d) any governmental plan which is subject to any statute, regulation, rule, policy or procedure similar to Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code.

2) Appointment of StoneCastle as your Agent

By opening a FICA Account, you are appointing StoneCastle as your Manager and authorized agent to direct the FICA Custodian pursuant to these Terms and Conditions, which StoneCastle may modify by notice to you. See Section 22 “Changes to Terms and Conditions.”

StoneCastle will select the Insured Depositories into which the funds in your FICA Account will be deposited. StoneCastle will act as your agent in directing the FICA Custodian to deposit funds from your FICA Account into the Depository Account(s) at the Insured Depositories. If you make a withdrawal request, StoneCastle will act as your agent in directing the FICA Custodian to withdraw funds from the Depository Accounts and crediting such funds to your FICA Account. The FICA Custodian will transfer funds from your FICA Account to you as you direct pursuant to instructions satisfactory to the FICA Custodian. StoneCastle will also act as your agent to forward to the FICA Custodian the information needed to maintain your account with the FICA Custodian.

3) Information about StoneCastle, the FICA Custodian and the Insured Depositories

StoneCastle is an administrator of deposit services. It is not, itself, a bank or broker-dealer. U.S. Bank is a national banking association. U.S. Bank is not affiliated with StoneCastle. StoneCastle has the right, in its sole discretion, to appoint a different custodian for your FICA Account with prior notice.

You agree that StoneCastle may direct funds in your FICA Account into Insured Depositories, including any Insured Depositories affiliated with StoneCastle, the FICA Custodian or any Sub-Custodian, subject to all applicable laws.

Each Insured Depository is a separate FDIC-insured depository institution. You can obtain publicly available financial information concerning any of the FDIC insured banks at www.fdic.gov or by contacting the FDIC Division of Depositor and Consumer Protection by letter at 550 17th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20429 or by phone at 877-275-3342. Neither StoneCastle nor the FICA Custodian guarantees the financial condition of any Insured Depository, or the accuracy of any publicly available information concerning an Insured Depository.

The Depository Account(s) at each Insured Depository will be in the name of one or more Sub-Custodians. Each Sub-Custodian will be either a “Bank” as defined in Section 2(a)(5) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 or a wholly-owned subsidiary of a Bank. U.S. Bank and its affiliates may serve as a Sub-Custodian.

4) Appointment of StoneCastle as your Agent.

By opening a FICA Account, you are appointing StoneCastle as your Manager and authorized agent to direct the FICA Custodian pursuant to these Terms and Conditions, which StoneCastle may modify by notice to you in accordance with Section 22 “Changes to Terms and Conditions.”

In its capacity as your Manager and authorized agent, StoneCastle will be authorized to: (i) keep records as to the amount of your money on deposit in each Insured Depository; (ii) take such action and sign all documentation which may be required for collection of any portion of the principal or interest on your FICA Account including any instrument required to affect any disposition of deposits; (iii) provide periodic electronic statements of account activity, account balances, tax reporting information, if applicable, and any other legally required information to receive payments for deposits and dispose of such payments as instructed; and (iv) provide the foregoing services to you without charging any additional fees to you apart from a management fee (“FICA Fee”) that will be deducted from your FICA Account.

The FICA Custodian has no responsibility or liability with respect to the actions or omissions of StoneCastle; it has no duty to oversee, monitor or supervise StoneCastle, and has no duty to investigate, confirm, verify or otherwise inquire into any instruction it receives from StoneCastle (or concerning the authority or accuracy thereof) with respect to your funds or your FICA Account. The FICA Custodian will not be privy to instructions you may send to StoneCastle from time to time.

5) Transfers and Interest.

Interest rates paid on deposits in Depository Accounts are determined by the Insured Depositories in their discretion based on prevailing economic and business conditions and such rates may change at any time without notice. The interest rate paid by any Insured Depository may fluctuate daily based on market conditions. The net interest earned on your deposits will be set forth in your account statement.

If your funds are received by the FICA Custodian by 3:00 p.m. (Eastern Time), your FICA Account will receive same day credit. In your monthly account statements, StoneCastle may estimate the aggregate amount of accrued but unpaid interest less any FICA Fee with respect to such interest, which amount cannot be withdrawn from your FICA Account until it is credited to the FICA Account. Any estimate of net accrued interest on your monthly account statement is for informational purposes only.

Each Insured Depository may profit from the difference between the interest it pays on the Depository Accounts and the income it earns on loans, investments, and other business operations.

Each Insured Depository may pay the FICA Custodian and/or StoneCastle fees for its services related to your Deposits equal to a percentage of the average daily deposit balance in the Depository Accounts at the Insured Depository. StoneCastle may share such fees with the FICA Custodian. The amount of any fees an Insured Depository pays could directly affect the interest rate paid by the Insured Depository on your Deposit. The fees paid to the FICA Custodian and/or StoneCastle by each Insured Depository may vary. The FICA Fee will be deducted from your FICA Account on the day interest from a Depository Account is credited to your FICA Account. See Section 9 “Account Fees and Charges.”

The rate you earn on your Deposits at any Insured Depository through the FICA Program may be higher or lower than the rates available to depositors making non-FICA Program deposits with an Insured Depository, rates available through other types of accounts at U.S. Bank, or rates offered by other depository institutions in comparable accounts. Any fees imposed under the FICA Program could reduce earnings on your Deposits. You should compare the terms, interest rates, charges and other features of the FICA Program with other accounts and investment alternatives. There is no minimum period that your money must remain in the FICA Program.

Interest will be accrued daily and posted monthly to the Depository Account. Interest will accrue on Deposits from the Business Day (as defined below) your funds are received in investible form by the FICA Custodian through the date you request those funds to be withdrawn. The “daily balance method” is used to calculate interest. This method applies a daily periodic interest rate to the principal in the account for the period. The daily rate is 1/365 of the applicable annual rate. Your withdrawal request should generally be fulfilled, with the withdrawal proceeds wired to an account that you designate, on the Business Day following the day your withdrawal request is processed. See Section 8 “Withdrawals.”

Funds must be posted to your FICA Account by 3:00 p.m. (Eastern Time) on any Business Day in order for the FICA Custodian to initiate a transfer of your funds to the Insured Depositories on the same day. If funds are received by the FICA Custodian after 3:00 p.m. (Eastern Time) on any Business Day or funds are received on a non-Business Day, then the FICA Custodian will generally initiate a transfer of your funds on the next Business Day, pursuant to instructions received from StoneCastle.

The transfers may not occur within the timeframes described above, and neither StoneCastle, the FICA Custodian nor any Sub-Custodian will be responsible for delays in the processing of funds transfers to or from your FICA Account or to or from Depository Accounts, or between Insured Depositories.

There is no minimum initial deposit required to open a FICA Account (as provided in Section 6 below), and there is no minimum balance required to maintain your participation in the FICA Program. There also is no minimum period that your money must remain on deposit in the FICA Program. You may withdraw deposits from your FICA Account on any Business Day, and there is no limitation on the dollar amount of your withdrawals from, or deposits to, your FICA Account. There is no penalty or fees for withdrawal of your entire balance, or any part thereof, at any time.

6) Deposits

There is no minimum initial deposit required to open a FICA Account and there is no minimum amount required for subsequent deposits. Funds must be posted to your FICA Account by 3:00 p.m. (Eastern Time) on a Business Day for transfers of such amounts to be initiated to the Insured Depositories on such date. See Section 5 “Transfers and Interest” above. You should call StoneCastle at (866) 343-5516, consult our website (web address separately provided by StoneCastle) or consult your Advisor, if applicable, for wiring instructions for your FICA Account. All deposits must be in U.S. dollars.

7) Insured Depositories

Your monthly account statement will indicate the Insured Depositories in which your FICA Account funds have been deposited. Each Insured Depository is a separate federally insured depository institution. If you do not wish to have your FICA Account funds deposited into any specific Insured Depository, you must identify those institutions to StoneCastle using the Insured Depository Exclusion Form provided to you with the FICA Account opening documents. You are responsible for providing the completed Insured Depository Exclusion Disclosure to StoneCastle. StoneCastle in turn will be responsible for giving instruction to the FICA Custodian. StoneCastle will not direct any of your FICA Account funds into any such Insured Depository that you have elected to exclude unless you notify StoneCastle in writing that such exclusion request is no longer in effect. The FICA Custodian will have no responsibility or liability with respect to the selection, investigation or evaluation of any Insured Depository, and shall have no liability for the actions or omissions of StoneCastle or any Insured Depository. The FICA Custodian shall not be under any duty to investigate or reconcile (whether against your instruction to StoneCastle or otherwise) any instruction it receives from StoneCastle.

Amounts in your FICA Account along with funds from other FICA Depositors will be deposited by the FICA Custodian at the direction of StoneCastle into one or more Depository Accounts at multiple Insured Depositories. The Depository Account(s) at each Insured Depository will be named as follows (or in a substantially similar manner): “U.S. Bank National Association [or name of Sub-Custodian] as custodian for persons or entities who are listed on its records, each acting for itself and on behalf of others.” Each Sub-Custodian will act as sub-custodian for the FICA Custodian which acts as custodian for the FICA Depositors. In the event of the failure of an Insured Depository, where the deposits are not assumed by another Insured Depository, StoneCastle will promptly submit an insurance claim to the FDIC on behalf of the FICA Depositors who have amounts on deposit through one or more Depository Accounts at the Insured Depository. During the time your insurance claim is being processed by the FDIC, you will not have access to the funds that you had on deposit with such Insured Depository.

StoneCastle selects the Insured Depositories for the FICA Program. StoneCastle may, in its discretion, include additional Insured Depositories in the FICA Program, remove Insured Depositories from the FICA Program, allocate balances between Insured Depositories and determine the amounts and order of deposits into Insured Depositories, in each case in its sole discretion.

A Depository Account under the FICA Program is not covered by SIPC. SIPC is a non-profit member corporation funded primarily by member securities brokerage firms registered with the SEC. SIPC provides protection against risks to clients of member brokerage firms in the event of the failure of that member firm, but SIPC does not guarantee bank deposits. For more information about SIPC, see www.sipc.org.

In the event that an Insured Depository rejects additional deposits, or decides to return funds to the applicable Sub-Custodian or the FICA Custodian (or closes the Depository Accounts at the Insured Depository entirely), or StoneCastle decides to withdraw funds in whole or in part from an Insured Depository, StoneCastle will direct the FICA Custodian to transfer such funds to one or more other Insured Depositories. See Section 5 “Transfers and Interest” above.

IN THE EVENT OF A FINANCIAL FAILURE OF ANY INSURED DEPOSITORY, NEITHER STONECASTLE NOR THE FICA CUSTODIAN SHALL HAVE ANY LIABILITY FOR ANY LOSSES THAT MAY RESULT. THE FICA CUSTODIAN AND STONECASTLE WILL COOPERATE IN SUBMITTING CLAIMS TO THE FDIC WITH RESPECT TO, BUT ARE NOT UNDER ANY DUTY OR OBLIGATION TO UNDERTAKE LEGAL ACTION AGAINST, ANY SUCH INSURED DEPOSITORY (WHETHER IN THE EVENT OF ITS FINANCIAL FAILURE, INSOLVENCY, RECEIVERSHIP, CONSERVATORSHIP, OR OTHERWISE).

8) Withdrawals

Withdrawals from your FICA Account may be made on any Business Day, in any amount, not to exceed your total account balance in your FICA Account. Pursuant to federal regulations, Insured Depositories may exercise the right to require seven (7) days’ notice before permitting a transfer of funds out of a Depository Account. You may request a withdrawal from your FICA Account by accessing our website (web address separately provided by StoneCastle) and by following the directions under the section entitled “Account Withdrawals,” or, where appropriate, by contacting your Advisor. Withdrawals from the FICA Program cannot be made directly by you from any of the Insured Depositories. If you satisfactorily complete your withdrawal request by 3:00 p.m. (Eastern Time) on any Business Day, the withdrawal request should, under normal conditions, be initiated and processed via transfer at the Insured Depositories on such day. Your withdrawal request will usually be fulfilled, with the withdrawal proceeds returned to the account designated by you by the next Business Day. Please reference Section 11 for additional detail on the FICA Program’s Days of Operation.

If your withdrawal request is completed after 3:00 p.m. (Eastern Time) on any Business Day, then it will be initiated and processed by 3:00 p.m. (Eastern Time) on the following Business Day and then your withdrawal request will be fulfilled on the day subsequent to the following Business Day.

If you decide to close your FICA Account or request a complete withdrawal, you may have to wait a period of time for all of the interest to be posted to your FICA Account since interest can only be credited to your FICA Account once interest is credited by the Insured Depositories to the Depository Accounts. Because the Insured Depositories do not generally post interest to a Depository Account on a same day basis, there may be a delay between the date of your withdrawal request and the date on which you receive all of the interest that accrued in the Depository Accounts to the effective date of your withdrawal.

StoneCastle and the FICA Custodian reserve the right to take reasonable measures to verify a withdrawal request, and StoneCastle and the FICA Custodian will not be held liable for any delays caused by such verification measures. In the case of partial withdrawals from your FICA Account, StoneCastle will determine from which Insured Depositories your withdrawal request will be processed.

StoneCastle and the FICA Custodian will not be held liable for any delay, failure or error by any Insured Depository in making payment on any Depository Account.

9) Account Fees and Charges

The FICA Fee will be determined by StoneCastle and will be deducted from your FICA Account on the date on which interest from an Insured Depository is credited to your FICA Account. The FICA Fee charged may vary between Insured Depositories but will never exceed the gross interest earned by your FICA Account from the Insured Depositories at which the interest is earned. Neither the FICA Custodian nor any Sub-Custodian will charge you a separate fee for their services provided within the FICA Program and any such fee will be paid separately by StoneCastle.

In addition, with prior notice, the FICA Custodian may charge you for specific costs incurred in processing transactions as well as certain other administrative fees and expenses for unusual transactions including, but not limited to, wire requests, copies of statements and special research services (including, without limitation, to the extent any such fees or expenses may be charged by the FICA Custodian or any applicable Sub-Custodian).

Such amounts may be deducted by the FICA Custodian from the FICA Account. The FICA Custodian and StoneCastle reserve the right to charge additional fees with prior notice.

10) Account Statements

You will receive a monthly account statement from StoneCastle via our website (web address separately provided by StoneCastle). StoneCastle will send you and/or your Advisor an e-mail when your account statement is available for viewing. You will be required to use your online access ID and password in order for you to view, print or save e-statementaccount information.

By signing the FICA Account Custody Agreement, you consent to electronic delivery of your periodic account statements and any other disclosures relating to your account(s), either by forwarding such statements and disclosures or by providing a notification of availability and links to such statements or disclosures, to the e-mail address provided to StoneCastle. You are responsible for notifying StoneCastle of changes in the e-mail address to be used for such purposes.

All activity with respect to your FICA Account, including your account balance through one or more Depository Accounts at each Insured Depository, the net interest earned in your FICA Account and transaction history will appear on your account statement. The account statement will also include the aggregate of your opening and closing balances in your FICA Account. You will not receive a separate statement from the Insured Depositories.

You should download and retain all account statements. You must notify StoneCastle immediately of any discrepancies noted on your account statement. You agree that the absence of any notice to us from you to the contrary within thirty (30) days of the statement date is the same as a written confirmation that you accept the statement, and all positions and transactions shown on it, as is.

To access, print, or save your electronically delivered statement you must have:

- a personal computer with Internet and e-mail access;
- and Internet browser that supports 128-bit encryption. Any of Internet Explorer Version 6.0 or higher, Netscape Navigator Version 6.1 or higher, a Safari Version 4.0 or higher will enable you to receive and use our service. You will also need Adobe Acrobat Reader Version 5.0 or higher;
- a valid e-mail address; and
- access to a printer or storage such as a hard drive so that you can download and/or print statements and/or disclosures for your records.

11) Days of Operation

The FICA Program is open Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. until 5:30 p.m. (Eastern Time) except for holidays observed by the United States Federal Reserve System which are currently listed at <https://www.federalreserve.gov/aboutthefed/k8.htm> (each day the FICA Program is open is referred to herein as a "Business Day"). Deposits to, and transfers or withdrawals from your FICA Account may only be made on days that the FICA Custodian and any related Sub-Custodian and Insured Depository is open for business.

12) FDIC Deposit Insurance

The funds in your FICA Account will be deposited into Depository Accounts at the Insured Depositories along with funds from other FICA Depositors. StoneCastle as your agent and the FICA Custodian each keeps records of how much each FICA Depositor has on deposit in each Insured Depository. Your Deposits, plus interest earned thereon, are held in those Depository Accounts in a manner designed to currently provide you with FDIC insurance at each Insured Depository. StoneCastle, as your agent, allocates your Deposits among the Depository Accounts to seek to maximize deposit insurance coverage available under the FICA Program, FDIC deposit insurance coverage is normally available for your Deposits up to the SMDIA, which is currently $250,000 per legal category of account ownership at each participating Insured Depository when aggregated with all other deposits held by you in the same Insured Depository and in the same legal category of account ownership. Thus, the maximum amount of Deposits eligible for deposit insurance coverage would not exceed the SMDIA per legal category of account ownership multiplied by the number of participating Insured Depositories that you have not excluded from receiving your Deposits under the FICA Program, less any funds that you may hold in an Insured Depository outside of the FICA Program in the same legal category of account ownership. If you have funds at an Insured Depository outside the FICA Program, your deposit insurance coverage for all of your funds at the Insured Depository may be adversely affected.

The Insured Depositories holding your money will be listed on your account statement along with the amount of funds that you have on deposit in such Insured Depositories through the FICA Program. Any amount by which the sum of your direct deposits at an Insured Depository outside the FICA Program plus the amounts that you have on deposit in such Insured Depository through the FICA Program exceeds the applicable insurance limits of the FDIC, will not have deposit insurance. Therefore, if you do not wish to have your FICA funds deposited into any Insured Depository, you must identify those institutions to StoneCastle using the Insured Depository Exclusion Form provided to you with the FICA Account opening documents. StoneCastle will not direct any of your FICA Account funds into any such Insured Depository that you have elected to exclude unless you notify StoneCastle in writing that such exclusion request is no longer in effect. There will be a delay between the time you make your exclusion request and the time that such Insured Depository is excluded. If you exclude any Insured Depository, the maximum level of deposit insurance available under the FICA Program may decrease.

Neither StoneCastle nor the FICA Custodian nor any Sub-Custodians monitors or takes any responsibility for money you may have at an Insured Depository outside the FICA Program. You are solely responsible for monitoring your deposit insurance coverage at any Insured Depository to ensure that your funds at any Insured Depository do not exceed applicable deposit insurance limits. Therefore, you should review the Insured Depositories holding your money as listed on your account statement. It is your responsibility to check such list of Insured Depositories on a regular basis and notify StoneCastle whenever you have an existing or new deposit relationship with an Insured Depository. While the FICA Program was designed to limit the amounts that are on deposit from a single FICA Depositor in an Insured Depository in the FICA Program, please be aware that it is your responsibility to monitor the total amount of all deposits you have with any one Insured Depository.

Since your FICA Account is a custody account, assets that are held by the FICA Custodian (such as deposits in the Depository Accounts at Insured Depositories) for safekeeping in custody are not considered assets of the FICA Custodian. These assets remain the property of the FICA Depositor, whether such assets are registered in the FICA Depositor's name, the FICA Custodian's name, a Sub-Custodian's name or in nominee name. The FICA Custodian is simply acting as custodian, holding your assets on your behalf and performing duties such as collecting interest from the Insured Depositories.

In general, the FDIC-recognized categories of account ownership include single ownership accounts; accounts held by an agent, escrow agent, nominee, guardian, custodian, or conservator; annuity contract accounts; certain joint ownership accounts; certain revocable trust accounts; accounts of a corporation, partnership, or unincorporated association; accounts held by a depository institution as the trustee of an irrevocable trust; certain irrevocable trust accounts; certain retirement and other employee benefit plan accounts; and certain accounts held by government depositors.

The FDIC imposes special requirements for obtaining pass-through deposit insurance coverage for multiple levels of fiduciary relationships. In these situations, in order for deposit insurance coverage to pass through to the true beneficial owners of the funds, it is necessary (i) to expressly indicate, on the records of the insured depository institution that there are multiple levels of fiduciary relationships; (ii) to disclose the existence of additional levels of fiduciary relationships in records, maintained in good faith and in the regular course of business, by parties at subsequent levels; and (iii) to disclose, at each of the level(s), the name(s) and the interest(s) of the person(s) on whose behalf the party at the level is acting. No person or entity in the chain of parties will be permitted to claim that they are acting in a fiduciary capacity for others unless the possible existence of such a relationship is revealed at some previous level in the chain. If your Deposits are beneficially owned through multiple levels of fiduciary relationship, you must take steps to comply with these special requirements.

Until your funds are actually received in investible form and processed by the Insured Depository, your funds may be insured at the FICA Custodian up to $250,000 in total and not at the Insured Depository.

If, for any reason, the amount deposited in any Insured Depository exceeds the applicable SMDIA, the excess funds would not be insured by the FDIC. Neither StoneCastle nor the FICA Custodian, shall have any liability for any insured or uninsured portion of your Deposits in any of the Insured Depositories.

In the event that deposit insurance payments become necessary, payments of principal plus unpaid and accrued interest up to the SMDIA per legal category of account ownership multiplied by the number of Insured Depositories shall be made to you. However, there is no specific time period during which the FDIC must make insurance payments available. Furthermore, you may be required to provide certain documentation to the FDIC before insurance payments are made.

13) Tax Withholding and Reporting

The FICA Custodian may be required to withhold U.S. federal income tax at the prevailing rate on all interest payable to certain FICA Depositors who fail to provide their correct taxpayer identification number or to make required certifications, or who have been notified by the Internal Revenue Service that they are subject to backup withholding. Interest earned on accounts held by entities (individuals or corporations) that are neither citizens nor residents of the United States, except for Canadian residents, generally are not subject to withholding tax. Where required by applicable law, each FICA Depositor will be issued a Form 1099-INT which will set forth the gross interest earned (i.e., interest before fees) by a FICA Depositor from the Insured Depositories. Consult your tax advisor.

14) Transferability; Assignment

The ownership of a FICA Account may not be transferred by you except with the express written consent of the FICA Custodian and StoneCastle or otherwise by operation of law. Any purported transfer shall not be binding on the FICA Custodian, StoneCastle or the Insured Depositories unless and until sufficient, acceptable documentation has been received by such entities. StoneCastle may assign and transfer its rights and obligations under the FICA Program, including, without limitation, pursuant to these Terms and Conditions, to one or more of its affiliates or subsidiaries or to any person that acquires all or substantially all of the assets of StoneCastle, without prior notice to you and without obtaining your consent.

15) Termination; Closing of Account

StoneCastle may, at its sole discretion, and without any prior notice, terminate your participation in the FICA Program and cause the FICA Custodian to return funds in your FICA Account to your bank/Advisor account of record.

16) Ordinary Care

The duties, responsibilities and standards of care of the FICA Custodian and any Sub-Custodian with respect to the matters described in these Terms and Conditions are governed and determined exclusively by the separate written agreements between StoneCastle and each such party, respectively. The FICA Custodian and each Sub-Custodian have no duties or responsibilities except as expressly set forth in such agreement to which they are a party, and they are each protected by the rights, protections and other terms and conditions contained therein. Any such duties or responsibilities that the FICA Custodian or any Sub-Custodian may have under those agreements are owed only to StoneCastle. Without limiting the foregoing, any liability for any act or omission by StoneCastle, the FICA Custodian, a Sub-Custodian or any Insured Depository or any delay by such party beyond time limits prescribed by law or permitted by these Terms and Conditions is excused if caused by your negligence, interruption of communication facilities, suspension of payments by another financial institution, war, emergency conditions or other circumstances beyond the control of such party, provided such party exercised such diligence as such circumstances would normally require. You agree that any act or omission by StoneCastle, the FICA Custodian, a Sub-Custodian or any Insured Depository in reliance upon or in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Uniform Commercial Code, and NACHA or other clearinghouse rules, or any rule or regulation of any state or federal agency having jurisdiction over such party shall constitute ordinary care.

17) Personal Information

You agree that StoneCastle, the FICA Custodian, Insured Depositories, and their respective service providers will share information concerning you and your accounts in connection with providing the services contemplated by these Terms and Conditions, and may disclose information about your FICA Account to any affiliate in accordance with StoneCastle's and the FICA Custodian's Privacy Policy and otherwise as permitted by law. You agree that StoneCastle, the FICA Custodian and their service providers may obtain such information as may be necessary for legitimate business needs in connection with the operation of the FICA Program. For information regarding the collection, processing and use of your personal information and your rights to limit the use and disclosure of such information, you should refer to the Privacy Policy included with your FICA Account opening documents and annually thereafter.

18) Legal Process

You agree that StoneCastle, the FICA Custodian, any Sub-Custodian and the Insured Depositories may comply with any writ of attachment, execution, garnishment, tax levy, restraining order, subpoena, warrant or other legal process, which such party in good faith believes to be valid. StoneCastle or the FICA Custodian or Sub-Custodian may notify you of such process by telephone, electronically or in writing. If StoneCastle or the FICA Custodian or a Sub-Custodian is not fully reimbursed for its records research, photocopying and handling costs (including its internal counsel costs) by the party that served the process, StoneCastle or the FICA Custodian or any Sub-Custodian may charge such costs to your FICA Account. You agree to indemnify, defend and hold StoneCastle, the FICA Custodian, any Sub-Custodian and the Insured Depositories harmless from all actions, claims, liabilities, losses, costs, attorneys' fees, and damages associated with their respective compliance with any process that such party believes in good faith to be valid. You further agree that StoneCastle, the FICA Custodian, any Sub-Custodian and the Insured Depositories may honor legal process that is served personally, by mail, or by facsimile transmission at any of their respective offices (including locations other than where the funds, records or property sought is held), even if the law requires personal delivery at the office where your FICA Account records are maintained.

19) Confidentiality and Ownership of the FICA Program

You agree (a) not to disclose the identity of any of the Insured Depositories in the FICA Program to any person or entity other than to your affiliates, officers, directors, employees and professional advisors who need access to such information, and (b) that you will not contact any of the Insured Depositories about StoneCastle, the FICA Custodian, any Sub-Custodian or the FICA Program without StoneCastle's prior written consent. You also agree that StoneCastle does and will at all times own all intellectual property rights in and to any works of authorship, moral rights, copyrights, trademarks, service marks, patents, designs, trade secrets, computer programs and algorithms relating to the FICA Program, including without limitation, the FICA Program documents and the FICA website, and that you will not use any such information, documents or property rights for any purpose other than as a participant in the FICA Program. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, StoneCastle acknowledges that you are subject to Ohio's public record laws and consents to your providing public records as necessary to comply with such laws.

20) Governing Law

These Terms and Conditions shall be governed by and subject to applicable federal laws and, to the extent not preempted by federal law, the laws of the State of Ohio without regard to its conflict of law provisions. Unless otherwise provided herein, StoneCastle, the FICA Custodian, any Sub-Custodian and the Insured Depositories may comply with applicable clearinghouse, federal and correspondent bank rules in processing transactions for your FICA Account. You agree that neither StoneCastle nor the FICA Custodian or Sub-Custodian is required to notify you of a change in those rules, except to the extent required by law.

21) Changes to Terms and Conditions

StoneCastle may make material changes to these Terms and Conditions at any time upon fifteen (15) days prior notice to you or on such shorter notice as may be set forth herein or required by applicable law. If those changes are not acceptable, you will have the option, as you do at any time, of terminating your participation in the FICA Program. All questions concerning your FICA Account should be directed to StoneCastle or to your Advisor.

22) Limits on Certain Deposit Accounts:

Federal banking regulations impose certain limitations on transfers from money market deposit accounts. The FICA Program seeks to rely on certain exemptions and interpretive relief granted by the Federal Reserve Board in connection with these limitations. However, the transactional capabilities of the Depository Accounts are limited; StoneCastle may impose limitations on transfers without prior notice. Limitations on transfers will not limit the interest rate you earn or the amount of FDIC insurance coverage for which you are eligible.

23) Alternatives to the Program:

By your enrollment in the FICA Program, you agree to the terms provided herein. You understand that, at any time, you may withdraw your enrollment in the Program.

24) Limitation of Liability:

TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, IN NO EVENT SHALL STONECASTLE, THE FICA CUSTODIAN, A SUB-CUSTODIAN, ANY INSURED DEPOSITORY OR THEIR AFFILIATES BE LIABLE FOR ANY INDIRECT, CONSEQUENTIAL, EXEMPLARY, SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES OF ANY NATURE, WHETHER SUCH LIABILITY IS ASSERTED ON THE BASIS OF CONTRACT, TORT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE OR STRICT LIABILITY) OR OTHERWISE, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION, LOSS OF PROFITS, GOODWILL OR BUSINESS INTERRUPTION, EVEN IF SUCH ENTITY WAS AWARE OF THE POTENTIAL FOR SUCH DAMAGES.

25) Tax Identification Information:

You acknowledge that the FICA Program uses your tax identification information in order to allocate your Deposits across Insured Depositories. If you do not provide, or if you do not have, a tax identification number, your funds may not be allocated across Insured Depositories to provide you with expanded FDIC insurance under the provisions of these Terms and Conditions.

26) Aggregation of Funds in Multiple Accounts:

If you have more than one account in the FICA Program with the same tax identification information, the funds in all such accounts are aggregated for the purpose of calculating the FDIC insurance available under the FICA Program. Depending on the individual facts and the ownership rights and capacities in which funds are held, additional FDIC insurance may not be available. Refer to Section 12 above for further information about deposit insurance.

27) Complaints:

Any complaints regarding the FICA Program should be addressed in writing to StoneCastle.

28) Power & Authority:

You represent and warrant that you have full power and authority to participate in the FICA Program and to agree to and perform these Terms and Conditions. In addition, if you are not an individual, you represent and warrant that (1) you are duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of your state or jurisdiction of organization; (2) you possess all requisite authority, power, licenses, permits, registrations and franchises and have made all governmental filings to conduct business wherever you conduct business and to execute, deliver and comply with your obligations hereunder; and (3) your agreement to these Terms and Conditions and performance hereunder shall not conflict with or violate your governing documents or any law, regulation, decree, demand, order or any other contract or agreement by which you are bound.

29) Waiver:

Any provision of these Terms and Conditions may be waived if, but only if, such waiver is in writing and is signed by the party against whom the waiver is to be effective. No failure or delay by any party in exercising any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege.

30) Severability:

If any term, provision, covenant or restriction of these Terms and Conditions is held by a court of competent jurisdiction or other authority to be invalid, void or unenforceable, the remainder of the terms, provisions, covenants and restrictions of these Terms and Conditions shall remain in full force and effect and shall in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated.

31) Entire Agreement:

These Terms and Conditions and any other documents provided to you by StoneCastle in connection with the FICA Program constitute the entire agreement with you regarding the FICA Program, and supersede all prior and contemporaneous agreements and understandings, both oral and written, with respect to the subject matter hereof. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS, NO REPRESENTATIONS OR WARRANTIES (ORAL OR WRITTEN, STATUTORY, EXPRESS, IMPLIED OR OTHERWISE) ARE MADE TO YOU REGARDING THE PROGRAM, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, AS TO MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR PURPOSE, CONFORMITY TO ANY DESCRIPTION OR REPRESENTATION, NON-INTERFERENCE OR NON-INFRINGEMENT. In the event of any inconsistency between a provision of these Terms and Conditions and a provision of any such other document provided to you in connection with the FICA Program, the provision of these Terms and Conditions shall prevail.

32) Binding Effect:

These Terms and Conditions shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the parties hereto, StoneCastle, the FICA Custodian and each Sub-Custodian, and their respective permitted heirs, successors, legal representatives and assigns. Nothing in these Terms and Conditions, expressed or implied, is intended to confer on any person other than the parties hereto, StoneCastle, the StoneCastle Custodian and the Sub-Custodians, and their respective permitted heirs, successors, legal representatives and assigns, any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities under or by reason of these Terms and Conditions.

33) Disputes:

Except to the extent otherwise provided by applicable law, any action at law or in equity arising out of or relating to these Terms and Conditions shall be filed only in the state or federal courts of the State of Ohio, and all parties hereto hereby consent and submit to the personal jurisdiction of such courts for the purposes of litigating any such action. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO

TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS.

STONECASTLE IS SOLELY RESPONSIBLE FOR THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS.
